Bard's Banjo: English Country Clawhammer Banjo Solos

NEW

By Steve Harvey. Intermediate-Advanced. Here is a book of tunes from the Elizabethan era—the great period of English song—set in tablature for the clawhammer banjo. At first glance, it is true, the songs of Shakespeare's day and the mountain banjo seem to be worlds apart. But the musical traditions are, in fact, related, as Elizabethan songs are the old world cousins of mountain tunes.

A Guide to Non-Jazz Improvisation: Banjo Edition

By Dick Weissman and edited by Dan Fox. Beginning-Intermediate. The non-jazz improvisation series is a concept that germinated in Dick Weissman's mind while he was attending music school. He wrote a 15-piece arrangement of the old square dance tune, Cripple Creek, and wanted the trombone to take a solo as part of the arrangement. When the trombonist kept playing a bebop solo that was totally unsuitable for the chart, Dick realized that—in addition to the many musicians who do not improvise—there are even jazz musicians who don't know how to improvise outside the limits of their own stylistic backgrounds.
